Dear Admiral Turner:

On behalf of the Dallas Council on World Affairs, I am delighted to confirm arrangements made between Mr. Herbert E. Hetu, Director of Public Affairs of your Agency, and Brigadier General John D. Torrey, Jr., USA-Ret., Executive Director of our Council, for you to be our honored guest at a luncheon at 12 noon on Monday, August 21, 1978, in the Grand Ballroom of the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel.

It is understood that you will make a formal presentation of approximately twenty minutes on the subject "What's Ahead for the CIA?" followed by a question period. The co-sponsors for this important occasion are: The Dallas Chamber of Commerce; Dallas Chapter, Association of the U. S. Army; Dallas Council, Navy League and Dallas Chapter, Air Force Association.

A complimentary suite has been reserved for you for the night of Sunday, August 20, at the Sheraton-Dallas. General Torrey will coordinate all details concerning your local reservations as well as your luncheon visit with us.

I look forward to meeting you personally and to hearing your remarks.

Sincerely,

W. E. Cooper
